Use of Artificial Intelligence Tools

The Pediatric Pain Letter recognizes that artificial intelligence tools such as large language models may support aspects of manuscript preparation. Their use must be transparent, appropriate and subject to full human oversight.

AI tools may be used only for language editing and readability improvements.

AI tools must not be used to generate, summarise or interpret scientific content in submissions to this journal.

Authors must adhere to the following principles:

- Transparency. Any use of AI must be disclosed in the manuscript.

- Accountability. Authors are responsible for accuracy, integrity and originality.
- Human oversight. All outputs must be reviewed and edited by the authors.
- Authorship. AI tools cannot be listed as authors.
- Ethics and confidentiality. Do not upload confidential or copyrighted material without permission.

Declaration of AI Use

Authors must confirm one of the following:

- No AI tools were used beyond basic spelling or grammar checking.
- AI tools were used only for language editing and readability improvement. Provide details below.
- Name of tool or tools
- Purpose of use

Author confirmation:

The authors confirm that AI tools were used only for language editing and not to generate, summarise or interpret scientific content. All outputs have been reviewed and the authors take full responsibility for the manuscript.
